tejarat bonyan 2025/08 - 2026/04

- Led the end-to-end digital growth and performance marketing strategy, including SEO, content marketing, website development, and analytics-driven optimization across multiple platforms.
- Designed and implemented a full digital ecosystem for the brand, including the development and launch of unevairan.com, tejaratbonyan.com, and hezzar.com, as well as the creation and management of official social and content channels on Aparat, LinkedIn, and Instagram. Oversaw UI/UX design, front-end and back-end implementation, landing page architecture, and deployment to ensure a cohesive and scalable online presence.
- Transformed the lead generation system by redesigning high-conversion landing pages and implementing intelligent forms, resulting in a significant increase in quote requests and installation inquiries.
- Executed a data-driven SEO strategy focused on high-intent and conversion-oriented keywords (e.g., buying guides, product comparisons, and technical calculators), driving sustained organic traffic growth and achieving top rankings for more than 10 strategic keywords.
- Developed and launched lifecycle marketing campaigns targeting existing customers, including service renewal programs and warranty extensions, increasing repeat purchase rates and strengthening long-term brand loyalty.
- Built and executed a structured content strategy around pillar keywords across the full customer journey (e.g., “How to choose the right air conditioner for your space,” “Best energy-efficient cooling systems,” and “Comparison of inverter technologies”), significantly improving organic visibility and lead generation performance.
- Defined KPIs, structured keyword and content mapping frameworks, and led continuous performance optimization through data analysis, A/B testing, and iterative improvements across SEO, content, and campaign performance.
